Wines	Bottle $	Quantity	Amount
Sparkling Wine
Bougrier Touraine Brut AOP NV – Loire, France (Chardonnay, Chenin Blanc & Pinot Noir) Very fine, even bubbles. Discreet hints of white blossoms and a nice minerality. It is lively and the mouth is fresh and delicate.	$140
Champagne Richard Cheurlin Carte Or Brut NV - Champagne, France Fruity and complex aromas, balanced palate, and high drinkability. It features notes of white fruits, almonds, and a subtle powdery touch, followed by a round and full-bodied texture. The finish is described as fresh and lemony, with good balance between softness and freshness.	$340
White Wine
Domaine St. Vincent Cote du Rhone Village 2023 – Rhone, France Aromas of Bartlett pear, white pepper and notes of fresh honey. On the palate, crisp acidity and citrus notes are followed by ripe, fruit flavors on the mid-palate with a hint of spice and a refreshing finish with notes of butterscotch.	$140
Seguin Manuel Pouilly Fuisse Vieilles Vigne 2020 – Burgundy, France On the nose, it shows a combination of ripe fruit, floral and mineral aromas. On the palate, the wine is well-balanced, supple and very elegant. The fruit is enhanced by a delicate flinty touch, coming from the earth. It is fresh and clean.	$400
Seaglass Central Coast Chardonnay 2022 – Sonoma, USA An alluring combination of tropical aromas, rich flavors, refreshing acidity and a vibrant mouthfeel.	$190
Philippe Colin Bourgogne Aligote 2019 – Burgundy, France It is known for its refreshing acidity and vibrant flavors, often described as having notes of green apple, lemon zest, and white flowers. The wine is typically aged in stainless steel tanks to preserve its freshness, though some producers may use oak barrels.	$260
Red Wine
Luigi Tacchino Barbera Monferrato DOC 2017 – Piedmont, Italy Its bouquet reveals a tempting blend of juicy red fruits, especially cherries and plums, harmoniously intertwined with fine wood nuances and a hint of vanilla. On the palate, the wine presents itself velvety and round, with a remarkable balance of sweetness and freshness, complemented by delicate spicy accents.	$210
Mendel Cabernet Sauvignon 2022 – Mendoza, Argentina Spicy, fruity and intense. Aromas of black and red pepper prevail backed by hints of red fruit such as blueberries, cassis, strawberries as well as delicate quince undertones. After swirling, sweet touches of licorice and caramel contribute complexity and elegance. Pleasant and easy-to-drink wine. The same spice and fruit aromas on the nose follow through on the palate. Sweet and plush tannins give it structure, vivacity and unctuousness. An elegant wine whose freshness confers it a persistent and velvety finish.	$240
Champy Pernand-Vergelesses Red "Clos de Bully" 2021/ 2022 – Burgundy, France The nose is very fresh with notes of small red and black fruits on a mineral and smoky background (marl limestone). Well delineated, fresh and fruity on the palate. Good structure and balance, the tannins are present but fine.	$420
