

Head Chef/Club Manager (Middle Island Clubhouse)

Job description

We are looking for a talent to join the pre-opening team as Head Chef/Club Manager for our upcoming Middle Island Clubhouse.

Job Summary –

- Knowledge of all preparations concerning ingredients, cooking techniques and presentations in all areas of the kitchen.
- This role will be directly reporting to the Food & Beverage Manager on a regular basis and the General Manager on occasions as required.
- This role requires the candidate to be a leader and have an entrepreneurial spirit.

Key Tasks and Responsibilities -

- Communicates with members and establishes personal connections with them in order to obtain feedback on product quality and service levels.
- Supervises and coordinates activities of associates engaged in food preparation.
- Maintains excellent relationship with suppliers and is involved in procurement of the best seasonal produce available in the market.
- Involves in recruitment, training and retention of key hires as the clubhouse scales with the management.
- Solicits associates feedback, utilises an "open door" policy and reviews associates satisfaction to identify and address problems or concerns.
- Follows government rules and regulations and ensure food safety in all kitchen and the clubhouse.

Specific Requirements –

- Proven experience in menu planning, inventory and labor cost control.
- Adaptable and eager to challenge conventional thinking with a deep knowledge and understanding of the local F&B scene.
- Minimum 10 years kitchen experience in a high-end freestanding restaurant, private member's club and/or a hotel. Minimum 5 years experience in a similar position. International experience is a plus.
- Pre-opening experience is required.
- Degree in Hotel or Culinary Management or an equivalent combination of education and work-related experience is required.
- Fluency in written & spoken English is required, with fluency in other languages preferred.

The candidate will be a "brand ambassador" so that the club's culture is always maintained. Please email your CV to fnb@abclubhk.com for an interview.

Aberdeen Boat Club Limited is an equal opportunity employer. Personal data collected will be treated in strict confidence and be solely used for recruitment purposes only.