Commodore's Welcome Message

Last year's entry list of thirty boats is an illustration of the continuing popularity of this curtain-raising event to the autumn and winter season here at ABC. This year's early issue of the NOR combined with the persisting Covid restrictions on travel--which has triggered record new demand for Adult dinghy sail training courses , and a healthy entry list for ABC's Summer Series, leads us to expect buoyant interest this year. So if you are reading this message please take it this Welcome Invitation at face value and speed in your application.

Our supporting sponsors this year are the popular and familiar names of Sky International recently instrumental in helping to develop ABC's Dinghy Fleet, Box Steam Brewery which is always ready to help slake sailors' thirsts and Fuegy Fuels for their continued support of ABC Marine operations and sailing events.

Weather as we all know is becoming increasingly unpredictable and September is the monsoon transition month, which led several years ago to a move to a later start date in the hope of a greeting from a steady NE or Easterly monsoon wind. But with the evolving changes in weather patterns, one can but hope. We also have added longer courses to the ABC Standard sailing Instructions 2021 for the faster IRC divisions. The regatta will be sailed under the club's SSI's and thus allow a more extensive range of available courses for the ABC Race management team to choose from during the regatta.

I very much look forward to participating myself: to engaging once more with many regular boats and crews, and to meeting new crews of any boats, old or new, entering for the first time. ABC's traditional post-race hospitality ---thank you to Box Steam Brewery and prize giving will provide a convivial welcome to all after each day's event.

Regardless of weather, ABC's staff will be out on the water, and behind the bar, in full support with their usual enthusiasm and dedication and I thank them greatly on behalf of the Race Committee for all their efforts,

Wishing all of the participants—without whom there would be no regatta! --- spirited, fair and safe racing with much fun afloat and back ashore.
